

16 October 1972

Mr. Gerard P. Burke
President's Foreign Intelligence
Advisory Board
Room 297
Executive Office Building

Dear Jerry:

Dick Helms mentioned to me the other day that he had just updated himself via a briefing from our commo people, which he had found highly interesting and rewarding. It occurred to him the Board might be equally interested and he suggested you might wish to put it on their agenda at some future meeting.

There is obviously no hurry at all about this, but sometime during the next few months you might wish to put  on the list to discuss developments in his field.

STAT

Sincerely,

(Signed) Bronson Tweedy
